Abstract: In order to strengthen the ideological and political education of college students, it is very important to establish a practical education mode. If you want to improve the students' political and ideological quality and comprehensive quality, we should combine the ideological and political theoretical knowledge with the actual study and life of college students. Especially after the ideological and political education is paid attention to, the cultivation of the ideological and political education of college students should be organically combined with the social reality. This paper will analyze the importance of the era and feasibility of higher ideological and political education, and put forward simple suggestions for reference.

1. Introduction

In recent years, the concept of ideological and political education in universities has been developing continuously. As the most important link in college education, it has also been highly recommended by educators. The current ideological education practice education important direction, to implement the ideological and political education work to every detail of education work, and establish and improve the relevant education mechanism, gather a variety of elements, meet the real demand of the universities for the ideological and political education and the ultimate goal, help universities for the new mode of ideological education in colleges and universities to provide new ideas and advice. The ideological and political education of college students is based on the overall situation, and it further to strengthen their overall understanding and cognition of ideological and political education, so that students can master the true connotation of Marxism, establish a correct outlook on life, thought and world outlook, and set up a good socialist core values. Point out my professional learning direction and the core of my subsequent work development. Especially under the background of big ideological education, improve the ideological and political education mechanism in colleges and universities, this is not only the core of higher education education, can also help college students to find their own positioning, realize the ideological education to popularize the basic goal of all college students, improve the personalized development of ideological and political education and practical role.

2. The Importance of the Practical Education Mode of Ideological and Political Education in Colleges and Universities

2.1 Help College Students to Form a Seamless Connection with Their Real Life

At present many colleges and universities ideological education effect is poor, mainly because college students did not have some attention, most students' understanding of ideological stage is only the surface, only feel can smooth employment, and the ideological and political education theory knowledge for their future employment and life has no substantial connection, so college students will ignore the ideological education. At present, colleges and universities are earnestly carrying out the practice mode of ideological and political education in view of this situation, in order to break the current derailment of ideological and political education and social development. Combining theoretical knowledge with practice can not only help students to have a clearer understanding of ideological and political education, but also arouse students' attention to it. Help college students can smoothly transition from the campus to social practice, and then strengthen the core competitiveness of college students.

2.2 Help College Students to Establish Correct Values

Due to the rapid economic development of today's world, the social atmosphere is also unstable. Money worship is prevalent, and college students are also very wise in this process. Therefore, the big ideological and political ideas quietly came, the purpose is to help college students can transition from the campus to the social reality, down-to-earth. In the process of social development, college students, as the mainstay, should set up a correct outlook on life, values and world outlook, and face the possible difficulties in their future life with a positive attitude. Therefore, strengthening ideological and political education is in line with the actual situation of social development, and it is also an inevitable choice to help college students develop in an all-round way.

3. Strategy to Construct the Practical Education Mode of Ideological and Political Education under the Great Ideological and Political Vision

3.1 Clarify the Concept of Great Ideological and Political Education, and Promote the Integration of Ideological and Political Education and Professional Education

The meaning of great ideological and political education refers to a comprehensive education concept of combining various courses and ideological and political theory courses in the form of building the whole staff, whole course and whole course education pattern, forming a synergistic effect, and taking “cultivating people by virtue” as the fundamental task of education. Ideological and political course is essentially a kind of education, which is designed to achieve moral education. In the process of realizing teaching in colleges and universities, to clear big ideological education concept of the positive role of the new curriculum reform, also can promote the development of ideological education pattern, strengthen classroom education, in the process of classroom learning, mining itself has the ideological and moral role and potential, real classroom into cultivating students' high quality, high cultivation of ideological position [1]. Therefore, we should not only give full play to the practical education function of ideological and political classroom, but also communicate and integrate with other courses, so that the positive role of ideological and political education can be implemented in every corner of campus learning and life. But at the same time, colleges and universities should also make it clear that the ideological and political classroom is not the only channel to realize the teaching and education, but also to achieve the diversification of ideological and political education methods. To achieve individualized needs, combine ideological and political education with various professional education, and develop a development model with its own development characteristics in line with schools and college development characteristics. With the realistic needs of students as the main starting point, to promote the multi-level and multi-directional reform and innovation of ideological and political education. At the same time, we should continue to input fresh oxygen into the ideological and political education mode and strengthen the ideological characteristics of ideological and political education. To ensure that students can better strengthen their ideological and political literacy on the basis of adapting to social practical life.

3.2 Construction of Education Mode inside and Outside the School

In schools, the practical education mechanism of ideological and political education should be built. In order to better achieve the valuable teaching objectives, as a teacher, we should firmly ensure the implementation and development of the concept of practical education in the theory class, strengthen the appeal and appeal of ideological and political work to students, and timely answer their questions in the process of ideological and political learning. At the same time, teachers also want to implement the ideological education work and practice, can hold public welfare activities and community activities, the campus internal and external practice, with the help of cultural construction activities, let the students can correctly realize the western cultural diversity and harmfulness, in the correct face of the impact and influence. In the process of education and education, we should improve the hidden education characteristics, and correctly play the guiding role of the second classroom [2]. In this process, colleges and universities can also organize seminars to publicize the content and concept of the core values in the new era; they can organize reading competitions to correctly spread positive ideas, so that students and teachers can deeply realize the unique charm of thought and theory in specific practical activities. At the same time, we should also establish an ideological and political education model to promote college students to adapt to and return to the society. Ideological and political teachers to build a reasonable system of social practice system, guide the students really into the school, the countryside, and community, etc., let the students really feel the social development law, understand the development gap between the country and the city and different, realize the actual needs of enterprises, in the theme of distinct practice, let the students focus on social reality, based on their own career development and social development, combing the correct view and socialist core values, strengthen their own quality construction and culture, political accomplishment, develop themselves in the core value of the socialist cause development.

3.3 Strengthen the Education Work Mechanism of Teachers and Multi-Dimensional Participation

As an important guarantee for the effective and innovative development of ideological and political education in China, the construction of teachers is particularly important as a university. We should take the construction of ideological and political education as the fundamental goal of development, and build a large pattern [3] of ideological and political education teacher team. Under the background of great ideology and politics, teachers also undertake the important mission of teaching and educating people, and there are inseparable links between teaching and education, and teachers should also take teaching as the four-word of their career motto. From the general concept of teaching and educating people, educating people refers to the development of ideological and political education. Therefore, neither the ideological and political teachers in colleges and universities nor the ordinary professional teachers can be separated from the fundamental concept of education in the teaching practice. All teachers are the main body of education. But to lead the role, in the final analysis or professional ideological and political teachers. In its position, seeks its job, as college teachers, to shoulder the responsibility, not only to students 'professional skills, knowledge, and teach like a duck to water, also to guide college students to set up the correct outlook on life, values and politics, strengthen students' comprehensive quality training and lofty personality and further integration of ideological ideas, in practice to respect individual differences and subjectivity. At the same time, as the main body of ideological and political education work, we should complete their own work with high quality, improve our own horizon, and constantly strengthen their own professional ability, so as to better help students to improve their own ideological and moral quality.

4. Conclusion

In all, under the requirement of the big ideological and political, colleges and universities to combine the ideological and political education and college students' practice, and actively hold practice activities in the school, strengthen exchanges and cooperation between major enterprises, and through the school practice actively guide students to learn the ideological and political theory knowledge applied to real life, do. Through their own practical experience to understand the real core of ideological and political education, to promote their own all-round development.
